Song: Why would the moths not burn (sacrifice themselves)?

Om shanti. The spiritual Father explains to the spiritual children, that is, God teaches spiritual students. The students who study in those schools are not called spiritual students; they belong to the vicious community. Previously, you too were devilish, that is, you belonged to Ravan's community. You are now making effort to conquer Ravan, the five vices, in order to go to the kingdom of Rama. You have to explain to those who don't attain this knowledge that they are in the kingdom of Ravan. They don't understand this. When you tell your friends and relatives that you are studying with the unlimited Father, it doesn't mean that they have that faith. They won't have that faith no matter how much you say that the Father, or even God, speaks. New ones are not allowed to come here. No one can come here without having a letter or asking permission. However, in some cases, they do come. That too is breaking the law. You have to write everyone's news, together with their names etc., and ask permission to send that one. Then, Baba would reply: You may send him. If that person is a student of the devilish impure world, the Father would explain that that study is taught by vicious, impure ones, whereas this study is taught by God. Through that study you only receive a status worth a few pennies. Although someone may pass a very important exam, for how long would he be able to earn an income? Destruction is just ahead. Natural calamities will also come. You understand this. You also have to explain this in the visiting room to those outside who don't understand. This is a Godly study. Here, only those whose intellects have faith will be victorious, that is, they will rule the world. Those who belong to Ravan's community do not know this. Great caution is required for this. No one is allowed to come here without permission. This is not a tourist place. In a short time the laws will become very strict because this is the holiest of holy places. Shiv Baba is also called Indra. This is the Court of Indra. People wear a ring of nine jewels. There is an emerald (panna) in it, as well as a topaz (manek). All of these names are also given to angels. You souls are angels who fly. This is your description. However, those people do not understand anything about these matters. The rings that they wear also have certain other jewels among them. Some cost a thousand rupees whereas others cost 10 to 20 rupees. You children are also numberwise. Some study and become masters. Others study and become maids or servants. A kingdom is being established. Therefore, the Father sits here and teaches you. He is also called Indra (God of Rain). This is the rain of knowledge. No one but the Father can give you knowledge. This is your aim and objective. If you had the faith that God is teaching this study, you would never leave it. The arrow will never strike those who have stone intellects. They come and then, while moving along, they fall. The five vices have been your enemies for half the cycle. They bring you into body consciousness and slap you. Then you become those who are amazed by the knowledge, who listen to the knowledge, who speak about it and then run away. Maya is very powerful. She knocks you down with just one slap. You might think that you will never fall, but nevertheless Maya slaps you. Both men and women here remain pure. No one but God can make them this. This is the Godly mission. The Father is also called the Boatman and you are the boats. The Boatman comes to take everyone's boat across. It is said that the boat of truth will rock, but it will never sink. There are so many sects and cults. It is as though there is a battle between knowledge and devotion. Sometimes, devotion is victorious, but it will ultimately be victory for knowledge. Look how great the warriors on the path of devotion are! There are also great warriors on the path of knowledge who have been named Arjuna, Bhima etc. They have sat and written all of those stories. That praise belongs to you. You are now playing out your parts of heroes and heroines. It is at this time that the war takes place. Among you too, there are many who don't understand these aspects at all. The arrow will only strike those who are very good. Those who are third-class will not be able to sit here. Day by day, the laws will become much stricter. It is unlawful for those who have stone intellects and are unable to understand anything to come and sit here. This hall is the holiest of holy places. The Pope is said to be holy. This Father is the Holiest of the Holy. The Father says: I have to benefit everyone. Everything is going to be destroyed. Not everyone is able to understand these things. Although they may listen to it, they take it in one ear and let it out of the other. They neither imbibe anything themselves nor inspire others to do so. There are many such deaf and dumb people. The Father says: Hear no evil, see no evil... They have portrayed this with a picture of monkeys. However, this applies to human beings. At this time, human beings are worse than monkeys. There is a story about Narad. He was told: Look at your own face and check that you don't have the five vices in you. Just as you have a vision, so too, they have visions of Hanuman etc. The Father says: This happens every cycle. None of these things will exist in the golden age; this old world will finish. Those whose intellects have very firm faith will understand that they ruled that kingdom in the previous cycle too. The Father says: Children, now imbibe divine virtues. Do not do anything unlawful. Have patience in praise and defamation. Let there not be any anger. You are such elevated students! God, the Father, is teaching you. He is teaching you directly. Nevertheless, so many children forget this because He is in an ordinary body. The Father says: You won't be able to become uplifted so much by looking at the bodily being. Look at the soul. The soul resides in the centre of the forehead. The soul listens to this and nods in agreement. Always talk to souls. You souls are sitting on the thrones of your bodies. You were tamopradhan and now have to become satopradhan. When you consider yourself to be a soul and remember the Father, the consciousness of the body will be broken. There is the body consciousness of half the cycle. At this time, all are body conscious. The Father says: Now become soul conscious! It is the soul that imbibes everything. It is the soul that eats and drinks. The Father is called Abhogta (the One beyond the effect of experiencing anything). He is the Incorporeal. It is bodily beings who do everything. He doesn't eat or drink anything; He is Abhogta. Those people then copy this. They cheat human beings so much! You have all the knowledge in your intellects. Those who understood this in the previous cycle will understand it now. The Father says: I come and teach you every cycle and observe everything as the detached Observer. You will study everything that you studied previously, numberwise, according to the effort you make. It does take time! They say: The iron age still has 40,000 years left. This means that they are in extreme darkness. It is called the darkness of ignorance. There is the difference of day and night between the path of devotion and the path of knowledge. This too is a matter that has to be understood. You children have to remain immersed in great happiness. You have everything; you have no desires. You know that all your desires are being fulfilled, exactly as they were in the previous cycle, and this is why you remain fully satisfied. Those who have no knowledge won't be satisfied. It is said: There is no nourishment like happiness. You receive a kingdom for birth after birth. Those who are to become maids and servants will not have as much happiness. You have to become absolutely brave warriors. Maya should not be able to shake you. The Father says: You have to remain very cautious about your eyes; there shouldn't be any criminal vision. Sometimes, they make mischief when they see a woman. Oh! You are brothers and sisters, kumars and kumaris, and so why do your physical organs make mischief? Maya finishes great millionaires etc. Maya completely kills even the poor. Then they say: Baba, I was struck. Oh, you were defeated, even after 10 years! Now you will fall into the extreme depths of hell. You can understand what their stage is like inside. Some do very good service. Kumaris even shot the arrows at Bhishampitamay. These things are mentioned in the Gita a little. There are the versions of God. If God Krishna spoke the Gita, why does it say: "Very few know Me as I am and what I am"? You can't imagine what they would do if Krishna were here! Krishna exists in that body in the golden age. They don't know that I enter the body of the last birth of Krishna. Everyone would instantly come running in front of Krishna. When the Pope comes, such a huge crowd gathers in front of him. People don't understand that, at this time, everyone is impure and tamopradhan. They say: O Purifier come! However, they don't consider themselves to be impure. The Father explains to the children so well. Baba's intellect goes to the special children at all the centres. When many specially loved children come here, I look at them here. Otherwise, I have to think of them outside. I perform the dance of knowledge in front of them. When the majority are knowledgeable souls, there is great pleasure. There are many assaults on the daughters. They have to tolerate so much every cycle. By coming into knowledge, they even stop doing devotion. If they have a shrine or temple in their home and both husband and wife perform devotion, but the wife then becomes interested in knowledge and stops performing devotion, there is so much upheaval. She won't indulge in vice and will also stop studying the scriptures, and so there is fighting. There are many obstacles in this. They don't prevent you from going to other spiritual gatherings. Here, it is a matter of purity. When men are unable to stay at home, they go away to the forests. Where would women go? They believe that women are the gateway to hell. The Father says: They are the gateway to heaven. You daughters are establishing heaven. Previously, you were the gateway to hell. Now heaven is being established. The golden age is the gateway to heaven and the iron age is the gateway to hell. This is something to be understood. You children also understand this, numberwise, according to your efforts. Although you remain pure, you imbibe knowledge, numberwise. You have come away from there and are now sitting here. However, it is explained to you that you now have to live in your household with your family. They have so much difficulty! Those who live here have no difficulty at all. Therefore, the Father explains: Live at home with your family and remain as pure as a lotus. This is a matter of just this one final birth. While living at home with your family, consider yourself to be a soul. It is the soul that listens to this and the soul that has to become this. It is souls that have been wearing different dresses every birth. We souls now have to return home. We have to have yoga with the Father. This is the main thing. The Father says: I am talking to souls. The soul resides in the centre of the forehead and listens through these organs. When the soul is not in this body, the body becomes a corpse. The Father comes and gives such wonderful knowledge. No one, except the Supreme Soul, can explain these things. Sannyasis etc. do not look at souls. They consider a soul to be the Supreme Soul. Then they say that the soul is immune to the effect of action and they therefore go to the Ganges to wash their bodies. They don't understand that it is the soul that becomes impure, that it is the soul that does everything. The Father continues to explain to you. Don't think: I am so-and-so, I am such-and-such... No, all are souls. There should be no discrimination of caste etc. Consider yourself to be a soul. The Government doesn't believe in any religion. All of those religions are of the body but the Father of all souls is just the One. You have to look at souls. The original religion of all souls is peace. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Listen to all the useless things that you hear with one ear and then let it out of the other ear. Hear no evil, see no evil! Imbibe the teachings that the Father gives you.
2. Never have any limited desires. Remain very cautious about your eyes. There should be no criminal vision. None of your physical organs should make mischief. Remain full of happiness.

Blessing: May you experience the ascending stage and become perfect and equal to the Father by keeping a balance between your aim and your qualifications. Children desire to benefit the world and also have the elevated desire to become equal to the Father. However, there is a difference visible between their aim and their qualifications. It is visible to yourself and others. Therefore, put the art of keeping a balance into your ascending stage and finish this difference. You have the thought, but let the thought now be filled with determination and you will receive the blessing of becoming perfect and equal to the Father. At present, there are the two discuses spinning – of self realization and of looking at others. You become trikaldarshi over wasteful matters. Change this and become one who has pure and positive thoughts for the self and a spinner of the discus of self-realisation.

Slogan: To attain the fortune of service is the biggest fortune of all.
