

BapDada's teachings for the children on the Day of Remembrance.

Today, on the Day of Remembrance, seeing the children as embodiments of remembrance and embodiments of power, BapDada is giving them the blessing, "May you be constantly powerful." Just as, today, you have all been natural embodiments of remembrance and lost in the love of One, belonging to the one Father and none other, so, may you now always be easy yogis who are constantly yogyukt (linked in yoga), liberated-in-life and angels.

Today, the charts of you children were equal to the father's in being residents of the subtle region, and having a constantly loving stage. May you constantly be equal to the father and remain constantly loving and detached. On this day of power, the one determined thought all of you children everywhere have of revealing the father is even now reaching Baba. All of you children, in this land and abroad, are on the stage of service with just one thought filled with zeal and enthusiasm. Some are present through their minds and others through their bodies. Even here, in front of BapDada, the faces of all the children are full of zeal and enthusiasm for service. How long does it take BapDada to tour the world? It takes BapDada just as long to tour the world as it takes you to switch on the inventions of science, such as TV. and radio, in order to watch or to listen. In that time, BapDada saw what you children at every place were doing. Today, each of you has just the one concern for service. You want the flag of revelation which is at present flying in each one's intellects, to be flying all over the world. BapDada lives in the heart of each one of you. Your practical efforts are showing how each of you wants to tear your heart open and reveal that BapDada is there. The form of each of you at this time is like the memorial of the server Hanuman. Some of you are shooting the arrows of your elevated thoughts to create that atmosphere in which the Father can be revealed. Some of you are engaged in revealing the Father through your loving and powerful words. BapDada saw such scenes of the balance of remembrance and service. Today, your love fully emerged and your powerful form for service also emerged. Now, constantly maintain this balance of remembrance and service that you had today.

This is the year for every soul to be given their inheritance according to their capacity. It is the year for making all desperate souls content and satisfied, according to their capacity. This year, in particular, maintain the balance of remembrance and service, whilst remaining constantly blissful. As well as this, continue to give blessings to all souls. The slogan for this year for the whole gathering is: Constantly be a destroyer of obstacles for yourself and for others. The easy way to do this is to bid farewell to question marks for all time and to accumulate a full stock of all powers by putting a full stop. This year, all of you constantly wear your sparkling, obstacle-proof angelic dress. Don't put on a dress of mud. Always remain constantly adorned with your ornaments of all virtues, and keep with you your special weapons of the eight powers. Remain a perfect idol, holding your weapons of the eight powers. Constantly keep the foot of your elevated life on the lotus seat. What else will you do?

Every day at amrit vela, remain combined with the World Benefactor Father in your form of a bestower of blessings for the world. Be the Shakti who bestows blessings upon the world, with Shiva, the Father, and the World Benefactor (Shiv and Shakti). With the combined form of Shiva and Shakti, spread the fragrance of vibrations through the power of your mind and your attitude. Nowadays, people spray many different types of physical fragrance, such as rose and sandalwood. Similarly, let the different types of fragrance of peace, happiness, power, love, and bliss etc. continue to emanate from you. Every day at amrit vela, become like a fountain of many different elevated vibrations, and sprinkle rosewater on all souls. Simply press the automatic switch of your thoughts. You know how to do this, do you not? In today's world, there is a lot of the bad odour of impure attitudes. Make them fragrant. Do you understand what you have to do this year?

This year, use your body, mind, wealth and time etc in old and new ways to do service and make the final selection of the souls who will qualify for receiving liberation and the souls who will qualify for receiving liberation-in-life. Finalise everything by giving souls the message according to what they qualify for. Now finalise the file of service. Just as an officer (a civil servant) completes and signs every paper in a file and moves on to the next, so, all of you servers should also stamp every soul as to whether they are souls who qualify for liberation or liberation-in-life. Apply the final stamp so that their files can be completed. Do you understand what you have to do this year? Speed up the machinery of making this selection. We shall see how long it takes you to prepare the file, and whether it is those from abroad or those from this land who prepare this file first. Apply a stamp on souls for whichever religion they want to go to.

Today, BapDada is giving love and remembrance to all you loving and serviceable children everywhere. Even though, today, you may all be physically in different places, you are all Manmanabhav (constantly linked) with the Father because you all have the one concern to reveal the Father.

To those who remain constant and eternal in their love and service, to those who are constantly engaged in the Father's service, to those who fly the flag of revelation, to all you victorious children, BapDada's love, remembrance and namaste.

(Today, Dadi Janki is taking leave to return to London. BapDada made Dadi sit on the gaddi next to Him and take leave from everyone.) BapDada also gives respect to His specially beloved children. This is why BapDada congratulates (badhai) but does not bid you farewell (bidaai). In any case, you are an intoxicated fakir (wandering holy beggar). Baba even tours the world with the children in the corporeal form. Generally, Baba tours the world in a second, but He also tours around doing service with the children in the corporeal form. So you are returning in order to take the Father on a tour of world service, that is, to take Him on a tour of service. Your speciality for this year is, "May you be a ruler of the globe." (Chakravarti, one who tours the whole world). The Father will lead and you will follow Him. You will take the Father on a tour or the Father will take you on a tour.

Sweet Didiji came and sat in front of BapDada:

Today, all the children came to the subtle region through their love. However, today, in order to celebrate this Day of Power, the elevated souls who have gone elsewhere to do service also came here. Their heart-to-heart conversation was very good. Those souls (in different costumes now) were very pleased to see their wonderful parts of world service and were wondering what alokik, secret parts of world service they are playing through their different bodies. BapDada was telling them this. The memorial of the River Saraswati, the purifier of the world, is in the form of an incognito server. The River Ganges and the River Jamuna are well known in their physical forms and can be seen. However, the memorial of the service Saraswati did has been symbolised by an incognito river and also, visibly, by the one with the sitar. Her incognito memorial is symbolised by an incognito river. Both parts are wonderful. From the moment of her birth, her part is connected with service. There is a saying, "You take birth where there is victory for you." This does not refer to victory over a kingdom, but, by taking this birth, you experience victory over your vices. It is when you take this birth that you experience victory - not that you take birth where there has been victory. The practical part must be played of even the smallest memorial. These special servers are now waiting for the completion of the time and the completion of the service of the corporeal servers, because only when the role of physical service comes to an end can the wonderful part of the give and take of the new kingdom begin. The gathering of the advance group is very powerful, especially the very well known souls within it. These souls are playing their wonderful parts of preparing the land for the first birth, the elevated birth, at a fast speed. Those responsible for destruction are just waiting to press a button. Similarly, the advance party of instrumental souls doing the service of creation through divine birth is just waiting to give a touching, to give a message and bring about revelation. They will reveal this through the love of their relationships. The part of the birth of the first creation is recorded in the form of unique stories. Krishna will be first and Radhe will follow later. Radhe will be born after the task of preparing the birthplace and the stage of Krishna has been completed. This is why Krishna is older than Radhe. It is similar to how Jagadamba went onto the field of service (outside Madhuban) to prepare the land first and then the father (Brahma) followed. It is similar to how Jagadamba and the special child Vishwa Kishore both faced the opposition. Just as they were the ones who went ahead on to the field of service, so, even now, they have in their different costumes the same sanskars that they had for that task. They are both hero actors in the story of the birth of the first creation. They are now having the palaces of the womb prepared. Both of those idols were instruments in all the activity that happened here too. So, such powerful souls are also needed to prepare those palaces. They made preparations for the establishment here, and they are now making preparations for the special eight jewels there. They are preparing your palaces for you. Only when all the preparations have been made will you souls go there. Therefore, such an elevated task of preparing pure palaces in this impure world has to be carried out and such powerful souls are needed to accomplish this powerful task; not just any soul could do this. They are also asking all of you for a date for when you want the palaces to be ready by. They want a date. They are saying that their task can only begin when your part of doing physical service comes to an end - that your end will bring their beginning. First, there has to be the end, then there can be the beginning. So, what is the date of the end of your part of service? That date will also be the date for the birth of the kingdom. Did you hear their heart-to-heart conversation? In fact, all souls emerged (souls who had gone into new births), but even they have their groups.

On seeing the serviceable children, Baba said: You have all made very good plans for service. However, only when you instruments pay special attention to three things will all your plans for service be successful:

1. Create zeal and enthusiasm in souls by appreciating their specialities. In order to do this, you instruments have to become tireless servers.
2. Create a spiritual atmosphere at your centres and also at those centres with which you are connected. Then there can be easy progress for you and also the new souls that come, because the atmosphere creates the land. Therefore, let the atmosphere of the centre be spiritual. Those who come to the centre come from the complications of their households. They have become weary of the atmosphere of their households and so they need your extra co-operation. By giving them the co-operation of a spiritual atmosphere, you can make them into easy effort-makers. Just as air conditioning helps to create the right atmosphere so that you feel much more comfortable when you find a warm place in cold weather, similarly, on the basis of your spirituality, let the atmosphere of the centre be such that they feel they can progress easily there. This is why they go to a centre. As soon as they enter your centre, they should be able to feel the difference between the centre and outside and automatically be attracted to it.
3. The speciality of the Brahmin family is that, whilst you are many, you are united. So the vibrations at every centre should be such that everyone feels that they are not all different but one. These vibrations of unity will create one religion and one kingdom throughout the world in the future. Pay special attention to finish any differences and bring about unity amongst you.

In this New Year, put three things in particular into practice. Speaking and listening take place anyway, but this year, do these three things practically. Be a sevadhari (server), not for yourself but for service. Be one who sacrifices everything you have for service. Sakar Baba also sacrificed his bones for service. Similarly, let service constantly continue to take place through all your physical senses. Continue to serve through your lips and your eyes; let there be nothing but service. All of you are such serviceable ones, are you not?

You have made very good plans. Baba now wants to receive a list of everything you have made practical. Just as Baba received your files of plans, Baba also wants to receive a file of the result of your plans. Achcha, all of you are those who will come into the rosary of 108, are you not? Everything will be announced automatically. Each of you will announce your own number as you take your seat. Your seat of service will announce your number. Your service will become the mike. The mike of your mouth will not announce anything.

Blessing: May you be a constantly powerful soul who finds jewels of experience by going to the bottom of the ocean.

In order to become a powerful soul, practise with every speciality of yoga, every power and every main point of knowledge. No type of obstacle can stay in front of a soul who constantly practises and who remains lost in love. Therefore, sit in the laboratory of practice. Until now, you have been superficially floating on the surface of the waves of the ocean of knowledge, the ocean of virtues and the ocean of powers. Now go to the bottom of the ocean and you will discover many types of unique jewels of various experiences and become powerful souls.

Slogan: Impurity invokes the evil spirits of the vices. Therefore, now become pure even in your thoughts.
