

Essence: Sweet children, whenever you have time, sit in solitude and churn the ocean of knowledge. Revise the points that you hear.

Question: When will your pilgrimage of remembrance come to an end?

Answer: When none of your physical organs deceive you. When you reach your karmateet stage, your pilgrimage of remembrance will come to an end. You now have to make full effort and not become disheartened. Be ever-ready for service.

Om shanti. Are you sweetest children sitting here in soul consciousness? You children know that you have been body conscious for half a cycle. You now have to make effort to remain soul conscious. The Father comes and explains: When you sit considering yourself to be a soul, you will be able to remember the Father. Otherwise, you will forget Him. How can you stay on the pilgrimage if you don't remember Him? How would your sins be absolved? There would be a loss. Remember this again and again. This is the main thing. The Father tells you many different methods. It has also been explained to you what is right and what is wrong. The Father is the Ocean of Knowledge. You also have knowledge of devotion. Children have to do so many things in devotion. He explains: Holding sacrificial fires and doing tapasya etc. all belong to the path of devotion. They sing songs of praise of the Father, but that praise is wrong. In fact, they don't even know the full praise of Krishna. Each aspect has to be understood. For example, Krishna is called the Lord of Paradise. OK, Baba asks: Can Krishna be called Trilokinath (Lord of the Three Worlds)? Trilokinath has been remembered. The Lord of the Three Worlds means the Lord of the incorporeal world, the subtle world and the corporeal world. You children have been told that you are also the masters of Brahmand (the element of light). Would Krishna have considered himself to be a master of Brahmand? No; he was in Paradise. Heaven, the new world, is called Paradise. So, in fact, no one is a master of the three worlds. The Father tells you right things. There are three worlds. As well as Shiv Baba, you children too are the masters of Brahmand. There is no question of the subtle region. Shiv Baba is not even the master of the corporeal region - neither of heaven nor of hell. Krishna is a master of heaven and Ravan is the master of hell. This is called the devil's kingdom, the kingdom of Ravan. People say this, but they don't understand the meaning of it. The Father sits here and explains to you children. Ravan has been portrayed with ten heads: five vices of the male and five of the female. The five vices now apply to everyone; all are in the kingdom of Ravan. You are now becoming elevated. The Father comes and creates the elevated world. By sitting in solitude, you will be able to churn the ocean of knowledge in this way. In other studies too, students go and study their books in solitude. You don't need to study any books. Yes, you do have to note down points. You then have to revise them. These aspects are very deep and have to be understood. The Father says: Today, I am telling you the deepest and newest points. Lakshmi and Narayan are the masters of the land of divinity. You would not say that Vishnu is that. They don't understand that Vishnu is Lakshmi and Narayan. You now explain the aim and objective in short. Brahma and Saraswati are not male and female (as a couple). This one is Prajapita Brahma. So Prajapita Brahma can be called the great-great-grandfather. Shiv Baba would only be called Baba. All the rest are brothers. There are so many children of Brahma. All of them know that they are brothers, the children of God. However, that is in the incorporeal world. You have now become Brahmins. The golden age is called the new world. This age is called the most elevated confluence age. In the golden age, all are the most elevated human beings. These are very wonderful aspects. You are being made ready for the new world. It is only at this confluence age that you become the most elevated human beings. You say: I will become Lakshmi or Narayan. They are the most elevated human beings of all; they are called deities. Lakshmi and Narayan are the highest of all, they are number one. Then, you children become numberwise. The sun dynasty is said to be the highest; it is number one. The degrees decrease gradually. You children are now carrying out the inauguration of the new world. Just as children become very happy when their new home is ready and they have an inauguration ceremony, so you children also become happy on seeing the new world and you have your inauguration. It has also been written: There was a shower of golden flowers. The mercury of happiness of you children should rise very high. You receive both peace and happiness. No one else can receive so much peace and happiness. When those of other religions come, there is duality. You children have the infinite happiness of making effort to claim a high status. It shouldn't be that you just accept whatever is in your fortune, that if you are going to pass you will pass; no. Effort definitely has to be made for everything. Someone who is unable to make effort would say, "Whatever is in my fortune.....", and he would stop making effort. The Father says: I make you mothers so elevated. There is a great deal of respect for females everywhere else. They are given respect abroad too. Here, when a daughter is born, they turn the bed upside-down. This world is completely dirty. At this time, you children know what Bharat was and what it is now. People have forgotten this and simply keep asking for peace. They want peace in the world. You can show them the picture of Lakshmi and Narayan. When it was their kingdom, there was purity, peace and happiness. You do want such a kingdom, do you not? You wouldn't speak about world peace for the incorporeal world, would you? It is only here that there can be peace in the world. There used to be the kingdom of deities over the whole world. The incorporeal world is the world of souls. Human beings don't even know that there is a world of souls. The Father says: I make you into such elevated human beings. All of these matters have to be explained. It isn't that people will believe you when you shout out to them that God has come. No, they will insult you even more. They would say: The Brahma Kumaris call their Baba God. Service can't be done in that way. Baba continues to show you methods. Put up eight to ten pictures in a room, and, outside, write: If you want to claim your inheritance of unlimited happiness from the unlimited Father, if you want to change from ordinary human beings into deities, then come inside and we will tell you how. Many will then come to you. They will continue to come by themselves. There was peace in the world, was there not? There are now so many religions. How can there be peace in this tamopradhan world? Only God can bring about peace in the world. When Shiv Baba comes, He definitely brings a gift with Him. Only the one Father comes from so far away and He only comes once. Such a great Baba only comes once every 5000 years. When someone returns from travelling abroad, he brings gifts back with him for his children. A man becomes the husband of his wife, the father of his children and the grandfather of his grandchildren and then the great-grandfather of his great-grandchildren etc. You call this one Baba, and then he also becomes the grandfather. He will also be the great-grandfather; there are the different generations. There are the names Adam and Adi Dev, but people don't understand the meaning of them. The Father sits here and explains to you children. You are now becoming rulers of the globe by coming to know the history and geography of the world from the Father. Baba is teaching you with so much love and interest. Therefore, you should study just as much. Everyone is free early in the morning. Just come to morning class and listen to the murli for half to three-quarters of an hour and then go back home. You can remember Baba wherever you are. Sundays are a holiday. Sit for two to three hours in the morning and make up (build up) your income for the whole day. Completely fill your aprons. You do have time, do you not? When storms of Maya come, you are unable to remember Baba. Everything Baba tells you is very easy. On the path of devotion, they go to so many satsangs etc. They go to a Krishna Temple and to the Shrinath Temple and then someone else's temple. Many become adulterated even while on a pilgrimage. They face so many difficulties and they receive no benefit from it. That too is fixed in the drama and it will also happen again. This part is recorded in you souls. You will play the same parts that you played in the golden and silver ages; you will play the same parts that you played in the previous cycle. Those with gross intellects cannot understand this. Those who have refined intellects are able to understand everything very well and explain to others. They feel inside that this drama is eternal. No one in the world understands that this is an unlimited play. It takes time to understand it. Everything is explained to you in detail and then you are told that the main thing is the pilgrimage of remembrance. "Liberation-in-life in a second" has been remembered. There is also the praise that He is the Ocean of Knowledge and that even if you made the whole ocean into ink and all the forests into pens and the earth into paper, there could still be no end to this knowledge. From the beginning, you have been writing so much and, if you continued to write, how much paper would be used? You don't have to stumble around. The main thing is Alpha. Remember the Father. You come here to Shiv Baba. Shiv Baba enters this one and teaches you with so much love. He does not have any external show. The Father says: I enter an old body. Look how simply Shiv Baba comes and teaches us. He has no arrogance. The Father says: You have been inviting Me to come into the impure world and an impure body, to come and give you teachings. You don't invite Me to come in the golden age, and sit in palaces studded with diamonds and jewels and offer Me food. Shiv Baba doesn't eat anything. Previously, you used to invite Him to come and eat. You used to offer Him 36 varieties of food. That too will happen again. This can be called the divine activities. What divine activities could Krishna have? He is a prince of the golden age. He would not be called the Purifier. You now know how he became the master of the golden-aged world. Human beings are in total darkness. You are now in total light. The Father comes and changes night into day. You rule for half the cycle. Therefore, you should be very happy. Your pilgrimage of remembrance will come to an end when none of your physical organs deceive you. When you reach your karmateet stage, your pilgrimage of remembrance will come to an end. You have not completed it yet. You now have to make full effort and not become disheartened. Just continue to do service and nothing but service. The Father has come and is also serving through this old body, is He not? The Father is Karankaravanhar. He has so many concerns for the children: I have to do this; I have to build a house. Just as a worldly father has thoughts about everything limited, in the same way, the Father from beyond this world has thoughts about everything unlimited. You children have to do service. Day by day, everything is becoming easier. The closer you come to destruction, the more strength you will continue to receive. It has been remembered that the arrows struck Bhishampitamay and others at the end. If the arrows were to strike them now, there would be so much chaos. There would be such big crowds, don't even ask! There would be so many that you would not even have time to scratch your head. It is not like that now. However, when the big crowds come, it will then be said to be like that. Your impact will spread when the arrows strike them. All the children definitely have to receive the Father's introduction. You can even open this imperishable hospital cum Godly university on three square feet of land. It does not matter if you don't have any money. You will be given pictures. While you are doing service, there will be regard and disregard, happiness and sorrow, heat and cold. All of that has to be tolerated. To make anyone become like a diamond is no small thing. Does the Father ever become tired? Why do you become tired? Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Study for half an hour or three-quarters of an hour early in the morning with a lot of love and interest. Stay in remembrance of the Father. Make such effort for remembrance that all your physical organs are brought under your control.
2. Everything has to be tolerated in service: regard and disregard, happiness and sorrow, heat and cold etc. Never become tired of doing service. Open a hospital-cum-university on three square feet of land and do the service of making others into diamonds.

Blessing: May you be a fortunate soul who uses all your treasures at the right time and experiences constant happiness.

As soon as you take your Brahmin birth from BapDada you also receive many elevated treasures for happiness. This is why, even from your name, devotees experience temporary happiness even now. Seeing your non-living images, they begin to dance in happiness. All of you are so fortunate from having received so many treasures, but you simply have to use them at the right time. Constantly keep the key in front of you, that is, constantly keep it in your awareness and put the awareness into a practical form and you will then constantly continue to experience constant happiness.

Slogan: Those who ignite the lamp of the Father's elevated hopes are the lamps of the clan.
