

Essence: Sweet children, you have now received divine vision from the Father. Only with this divine vision can you see souls and the Supreme Soul.

Question: By understanding which secret of the drama will you never give a particular type of advice to anyone?

Answer: When you understand that whatever happened in the drama in the past repeats accurately, you will never advise anyone to stop performing devotion. When this knowledge sits in their intellects very well, when they understand that they are souls and that they have to claim their inheritance from the unlimited Father, and when they also recognize Him, all their limited things will automatically finish.

Om shanti. Are you sitting here stabilized in your original religion? The spiritual Father asks you spiritual children because you know that only the unlimited Father is called the Spirit. It is just that He is called the Supreme. He is called the Supreme Spirit or the Supreme Soul. The Supreme Soul, God, definitely exists; it cannot be said that He doesn't exist. The Supreme Soul means God. This has been explained to you. Therefore, you mustn't become confused because you also heard this knowledge 5000 years ago. It is the soul that listens to this. Souls are very tiny and subtle. They are so tiny that they cannot be seen with his or her eyes. There isn't a single human being who will have seen a soul with these eyes. They can be seen, but only with divine vision, and that, too, is according to the drama plan. Achcha, for instance, someone has a vision of a soul in the same way that he sees other things. On the path of devotion too, when they have visions of something, it is through their physical eyes. They receive that divine vision and they see it as though it is in the living form. A soul receives the eye of knowledge through which he sees something, but that is in a state of trance. On the path of devotion, it is when they perform a lot of devotion that they receive visions. For instance, Meera had a vision of herself dancing in heaven. However, heaven didn't exist then. That must have been 500 to 600 years ago. Heaven really didn't exist at that time. Whatever existed in the past is seen with divine vision. When they perform a lot of devotion and become completely engrossed in devotion they have a vision, but they don't receive liberation through that. The path of liberation and liberation-in-life is completely separate from that of devotion. There are so many temples in Bharat. They place a lingam of Shiva too in them. They have large lingams and also small ones. You children understand that souls are like the Supreme Soul. The size of all souls is the same. As is the Father, so the children. All souls are brothers. Souls enter their bodies to play their parts. This is something that has to be understood. These are not the tall stories of the path of devotion. Only the one Father explains the things of the path of knowledge. First of all, it is only the unlimited incorporeal Father who explains everything. No one can understand Him completely or accurately. They say that He is omnipresent. That is not right. They call out to the Father with a lot of love. They say: Baba, when You come, we will surrender ourselves to You. You alone, and none other, are mine. Therefore, you definitely have to remember Him. He Himself says: O children! He speaks to souls. This is called spiritual knowledge. It is remembered that souls remained separated from the Supreme Soul for a long time. This account has also been shown. You souls have lived apart from Him for a long time and it is now that you have come to the Father to study your Raja Yoga once again. That Teacher is your Servant. A teacher is always an obedient servant. The Father too says: I am the Servant of all the children. You call out as though it is your right: O Purifier, come and purify us! All of you are devotees. You say: O God, come! Come and purify us once again! The pure world is called heaven and the impure world is called hell. All of these matters have to be understood. This is a college and Godfatherly World University. Its aim and objective is to change human beings into deities. You children have the faith that this is what you want to become. Would anyone who doesn't have faith sit in a school? You have the aim and objective in your intellects. If you were going to become a barrister or a doctor, you would have to study. If you didn't have this faith, you wouldn't even come here. You have the faith that you change from ordinary human beings into deities, from an ordinary human into Narayan. This is the true story of changing from an ordinary human into Narayan. In fact, this is a study, but why is it called a story? Because you also heard it 5000 years ago. That is now the past. The past is called a katha (a religious story). These are the teachings for you to change from an ordinary human into Narayan. You children know in your hearts that deities exist in the new world and that human beings exist in the old world. Human beings don't have the virtues that the deities have; that is why they are called deities. Human beings bow down in front of the deity idols and say: You are full of all virtues.... Then they call themselves degraded sinners. It is human beings that say this. It isn't deities that say this. Deities exist in the golden age; they cannot exist in the iron age. However, nowadays, they call everyone Shri, Shri. Shri means elevated. Only God can make you the most elevated. Elevated deities exist in the golden age. At this time, no human beings are elevated. You children now have unlimited renunciation. You know that this old world is about to be destroyed and this is why you have disinterest in it. Those people are hatha yogi renunciates. They renounce their homes and leave them. Then they go and live in palaces. There are no expenses in living in their little huts etc; none whatsoever. For solitude, one has to sit in a little hut, not in a palace. Baba too has had a little hut made. There is every happiness in a little hut. You children now have to make effort to change from human beings into deities. You know that whatever happened in the drama has now become the past and that it will repeat again accurately. This is why you mustn't advise anyone to stop performing devotion. When this knowledge enters their intellects, they will understand that they are souls and that they have to claim their inheritance from the unlimited Father. When there is recognition of the unlimited Father, all limited things finish. The Father says: While living at home with your family, simply connect your intellect's yoga to the Father. Actions have to be performed for the livelihood of the body, just as some people perform a lot of intense devotion on the path of devotion. They go to see the idols every day as a very firm discipline. To go to bodily beings is a physical pilgrimage. They have to stumble so much on the path of devotion. Here, you don't have to stumble at all. When people come here, they are made to sit down so that this knowledge can be explained to them. However, it isn't that you have to sit in one place in order to remember the Father. Can the devotees of Krishna on the path of devotion not remember him while walking and moving around? This is why educated people ask that, since there is a picture of Krishna in the house, why should people need to go to the temples? You can worship the picture of Krishna wherever you are. Achcha, you might not have a picture, but you can still remember him. Once you have seen something, you continue to remember that. You too are asked the same thing: Can you not remember Shiv Baba while sitting at home? This is something new. No one knows Shiv Baba. They don't know His name, form, land or time period but simply say that He is omnipresent. A soul cannot be called the Supreme Soul. Souls remember their Father, but, because they don't know Him, you have to explain to them for seven days. Then, all the points of detail are also explained. The Father is the Ocean of Knowledge. You have been listening to Him for so long because He has the knowledge. You understand that you receive knowledge to change from humans into deities. The Father says: I tell you new, deep things every day. When you don't receive a murli, you cry out so much! The Father says: Simply remember the Father! Even though you study the murli, you still forget the Father. First of all, you have to remember: I am a soul, a tiny point. You have to understand what a soul is. They say: The soul left that one and entered someone else. We souls became impure by taking rebirth. Previously, you belonged to the religion of the pure household. Lakshmi and Narayan were both pure. Then, both became impure and now both are becoming pure again. So, did they become pure from impure or did they take a pure birth? The Father sits here and explains how you were pure and how, by going onto the path of sin, you then became impure. Worshippers are said to be impure whereas those who are worthy of worship are said to be pure. The history and geography of the whole world is in your intellects. You know who used to rule there and how they received their kingdom. There isn't anyone else who knows this. Earlier, you too didn't have the knowledge of the Creator or the beginning, the middle or the end of creation. This means, you were atheists; you didn't know anything. When you become atheists you experience so much sorrow. You have now come here to become deities. There will be so much happiness there. Divine virtues have to be imbibed here. The children of Prajapita Brahma are brothers and sisters. There mustn't be any criminal vision; this takes effort. The eyes are very criminal. Out of all the physical senses, the eyes are the most criminal. They remain criminal for half the cycle and civil for half the cycle. In the golden age, the eyes are not criminal. When someone's eyes are criminal, he is said to be a devil. The Father Himself says: I enter the impure world. Those who have become impure have to become pure. People say that this one (Brahma) calls himself God. Look at the picture of the tree: This one is standing at the very top of the tree in the tamopradhan world. The same one is also doing tapasya beneath it. The dynasty of Lakshmi and Narayan continues in the golden age. That period is counted as the reign of Lakshmi and Narayan. This is why Baba says: When you show the kingdom of Lakshmi and Narayan, you should write: The silver age starts 1250 years after this kingdom starts. Hundreds of thousands of years are spoken of in the scriptures; there is the difference of day and night! There is the night of Brahma for half the cycle and the day of Brahma for half the cycle. Only the Father explains these things. He says: Sweet children, consider yourselves to be souls and remember the Father! By remembering Him you will become pure and then your final thoughts will lead you to your destination. Baba doesn't ask you to just stay here. He does not ask serviceable children to stay here. Centres and museums continue to be opened. Invitations are given to so many people: Come and claim your Godly birthright of the kingdom of the world. You are the children of the Father. The Father is the Creator of heaven. Therefore, you should receive your inheritance of heaven. The Father says: I only come once to establish heaven. The same world cycle continues to turn. There are many dictates of human beings and they say many things. There are so many opinions. These are called undivided directions. The tree is so large! So many branches and twigs emerge. So many religions are spreading. Previously, there was the one direction and the one kingdom. It used to be their kingdom over the whole world. At this time you understand this. We were the masters of the whole world. Then, having taken 84 births, we have become poverty-stricken. You are now conquering death. There is no untimely death there. Here, someone takes untimely death while just sitting somewhere. There is nothing but death everywhere. It is not like that there. There, life continues for one's full life. There used to be peace, purity and prosperity in Bharat. The average life span there was 150 years. Look at the life span now! God taught you yoga. Therefore, you are called yogeshwar. You won't be called that there. You are yogeshwar at this time; God is teaching you Raja Yoga. You will then become raj-rajeshwar (princes and princesses). You are now gyaneshwar (knowledge-full). Then, you become rajeshwar, that is, the kings of kings. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Make effort to make your eyes civil. Let your intellects always remain aware that you are brothers and sisters, children of Prajapita Brahma. Therefore, you must not have criminal vision.
2. While performing actions for the livelihood of your body, connect your intellect's yoga to the one Father. Renounce all limited things and remember the unlimited Father. Become an unlimited renunciate.

Blessing: May you have faith in the intellect and thereby become victorious, so that instead of stepping away, you experience the Father's support at every moment. Souls who have received the blessing of being victorious experience themselves to be supported at every moment. Their minds do not have even the slightest thought of experiencing themselves to be without support or alone. They are never sad nor do they have limited or temporary disinterest. They never step away from any task, problem or person, but while performing every action and facing everything, they are co-operative and maintain an attitude of unlimited disinterest.

Slogan: Stay in the company of the one Father and make the Father your Companion.
