

Essence: Sweet children, you now have to remove devilish defects and imbibe Godly virtues. Claim self-sovereignty for 21 births from the Father.

Question: Which of the Father's acts should also be your acts?

Answer: The Father's act is to teach everyone knowledge and yoga. You children must also perform this act. You have to purify the impure. Your business is to do spiritual service. Some children leave their bodies but then take new bodies and carry on with this effort. Day by day, your service will continue to increase.

Song: Salutations to Shiva.

Om shanti. It is right to play this song here because this is the praise of Shiv Baba, the Highest on High. It is not Rudra Baba, it is Shiv Baba. Although it is the same whether you say Shiv Baba or Rudra Baba, it still sounds good to say Shiv Baba. You are also sitting here having adopted bodies. The Father is explaining through Brahma, otherwise how could Shiv Baba speak? He is the Living Being, the Truth and the Ocean of Knowledge. Surely, He would only speak knowledge. To introduce Himself is also knowledge. He gives the knowledge of the beginning, the middle and the end of creation, that is, He gives the explanation. That is called knowledge too. To explain to someone, especially to explain about God, means to give knowledge. God introduces Himself. In English, it is said: Father shows son. The Father comes and introduces Himself and gives the knowledge of the beginning, the middle and the end of the world. The rishis and munis used to say that they did not know the Creator or His creation. Now that the Father has explained, it is understood that no one else can give this knowledge, the knowledge through which human beings claim the highest status. Surely, the highest status is that of deities. You children now understand that constant, unshakeable purity, peace, happiness and prosperity are your Godly birthright. You are claiming that once again. The land of happiness is the Godly birthright and the land of sorrow is the devilish birthright. Through Ravan we become impure. Souls receive the inheritance of impurity from Ravan. Then, only the one Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, Rama, purifies the impure ones. No one knows that Ravan is Bharat's old enemy for half the cycle. People desire the kingdom of Rama, which means that this is the kingdom of Ravan. However, they do not consider themselves to be impure. The devilish community is now changing into the community of deities. You come here in order to remove devilish defects and to imbibe Godly qualities. The Father alone is the One who inspires you to imbibe Godly virtues. You now understand that you have come here once again to claim your birthright of self-sovereignty for 21 births from the unlimited Father. You are sitting here to claim the self-sovereignty of the sun dynasty and the moon dynasty. You have claimed this self-sovereignty cycle after cycle. You lose it and then you claim it again. It should remain in your intellects that you are now claiming your inheritance from the Father. The children who are claiming the inheritance have to remember the Father. It should enter your intellects that you are sitting face to face with the Mother and the Father in order to claim the inheritance. He is speaking to us through the mouth of Brahma. Those who take Baba's lap are definitely called Brahmins. This is the sacrificial fire of knowledge, and then, whether you call it a sacrificial fire or whether you call it a school, it is the same thing. When people create a sacrificial fire, they also create a school where they study scriptures etc: the Gita is on one side, the Vedas and scriptures are on another side, and they also study the Ramayana on another side. Those who want to listen to the Ramayana go in one direction and those who want to listen to the Gita go in the other direction. This is the sacrificial fire of the knowledge of Rudra in which everything is to be sacrificed. It is now the end of the world and so this is the end of all sacrificial fires. There is only one sacrificial fire of knowledge. All the other various types of sacrificial fires are material sacrificial fires. There, they put into it barley, sesame seeds etc. This is the unlimited sacrificial fire into which everything is sacrificed and then the new creation takes place once again. There, there is nothing that causes sorrow. Here, there is so much sorrow. Illnesses etc. are increasing so much; there are various sorrows and diseases. All of this is fixed in the drama. There are as many types of sorrow as there are human beings. This is called the land of sorrow, the cottage of sorrow. People experience sorrow because this is the kingdom of Ravan. There is no Ravan in the kingdom of Rama. For half a cycle, it is the land of happiness and for the other half, it is the land of sorrow. The incorporeal Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, is called Rama. Firstly, there is the rosary of Rudra, the rosary of incorporeal souls, and then the corporeal rosary of Vishnu is created, that is, the rosary of the kingdom; they rule the kingdom numberwise. You children have to understand this clearly and also explain to others. As time passes, the knowledge will become short(er). Baba is creating methods in order for you to be able to explain in short. People will become disinterested at the time of destruction. They will then understand that this is definitely that great Mahabharat War. Surely, God must be incorporeal; it cannot be Krishna. Only the incorporeal One is called the Purifier and the Bestower of Salvation for All. This title cannot be given to anyone else. Baba has also explained that the pure deities will never set foot in this impure world. You ask for money from Lakshmi, but where would Lakshmi get money from? Here, Mama receives money from the father (Brahma). There, too, the father will be the companion. Here, Brahma is with Saraswati, and there, too, both definitely have to be together. There has to be some sign of that. Wealth definitely comes from somewhere. This is why there is the worship of Mahalakshmi. They show her with four arms but not as many legs. Ravan is shown with ten faces but not so many legs. So this proves that there cannot be such human beings; it is like that in order to be able to explain. When someone's husband dies, that soul is invited, but how can he come? He enters the body of a brahmin priest; he is invoked. These customs and systems are fixed in the drama. Then what happens? That soul comes. Souls are invited for you to feed them, but here, the Father Himself comes and feeds you children. The business of you children now is to do service. Some even make effort after having left the body, that is, they continue to make effort in their next birth. Your business is to change impure ones into pure ones. As you go further, you will see how service increases. This also happened a cycle ago; it is the same reel. You children understand that whatever happens, it happens as it did in the previous cycle. The Father also performs the same act of teaching knowledge and yoga, the act which was performed a cycle ago; it cannot be even slightly different. This is the drama. We souls come down here from our home. We adopt human bodies and play our parts. You must explain fully the 84 births as well as the cycle of the drama. No one else knows this. Previously, we did not understand either. You are those who understood a cycle ago and are now understanding once again. You have now understood the significance of the Creator and the beginning, the middle and the end of His creation. It should remain in your intellects that the Father is the Highest on High; He is the one who gives the inheritance and then there are Brahma, Vishnu and Shankar. Establishment takes place through Brahma. He is the one who then becomes the master of the land of Vishnu and sustains it. Whether you call it the land of Vishnu or the land of Lakshmi and Narayan, it is the same thing. You understand that you are claiming the inheritance of the sun and moon dynasties for 21 births from the Father. The Father says: Children, you belonged to Me. I sent you to play your parts. That too is fixed in the drama. No one is told to do anything. You understand that those who make effort well will go to the land of happiness, numberwise. You remember the land of happiness. You understand that this is the land of sorrow; no one else knows about this. It is in the intellects of you children that this is the land of sorrow. You claim your inheritance from the Father, the One who establishes the land of happiness. We have become Baba's while alive. When a child is adopted by a king, he understands that he belongs to the king. In the beginning, it is a lokik relationship and later, too, it is still a lokik relationship. Here, it becomes alokik and then parlokik. You understand that you belong to Rama, whereas all others belong to the clan of Ravan. They are on one side and you are on the other. The soul understands that he has truly completed 84 births. I, the soul, shed one body and take a new one. You are making effort inspired by the Father, the Purifier, the Ocean of Knowledge, the Bestower of Salvation for All. He teaches you through Brahma. It is the soul that studies. The soul is filled with the sanskars of a barrister etc. The soul speaks through the sense organs. You make a lot of effort to become soul conscious. The Father gives advice: The time of amrit vela is very well known. At that time, consider yourselves to be souls and remember the Father so that the rust on you souls is removed. Alloy has been mixed into souls. Pure jewellery is made out of pure gold. There is rust on souls, so they receive bodies accordingly. This is why you are put in an orb (of light). However, this is a question of using the intellect. You sit in remembrance of the Father. There is no other difficulty. It is as though a child is remembering his father. That is the unlimited Father. Other souls remember the body. Now, you souls remember your Father. The Father says: I am the unlimited Father, so, surely, I must give the unlimited happiness. I also gave this a cycle ago. Bharat was definitely the master of the world. There were no enemies. You are now becoming the masters of the land of happiness. You became so senseless! You were worthy of heaven and have now become worthy of hell. The Father has come once again to make you worthy of heaven. There is the birth of incorporeal Shiva as well as the birth of the Gita. People truly believe that when Shiv Baba comes, there will be the versions of God, and so there will also be the birth of the Gita. He comes once again and introduces Himself. The Gita is created from what He spoke when He came. You children know what Ravan is. This kingdom of Ravan is now to be destroyed. Death is standing ahead. This world was transformed a cycle ago as well. Everything is explained so clearly. It takes effort. While staying in your household, live as pure as a lotus flower and take this course at the same time. Ask the teacher. This course is very easy. Stay in your household, remember Me and understand the beginning, the middle and the end of creation. A few who listen for seven days emerge. Feel the pulse of every person. It is seen that some have deep love: they are desperate to listen to Baba's knowledge personally and you can tell this from their faces and their vibrations. Because their pulse is not felt properly, many good ones leave. They say: What can we do? We don't have time for seven days. Some say: Grant us a vision! Firstly, tell them to come and understand. Ask them: Whom have you come to? What relationship do you have with the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul? You too are Brahma Kumars and Kumaris. You are the grandchildren of Shiva, so you are the children of Brahma. The Father is the Creator of heaven, so He must give the inheritance. He must teach Raja Yoga. You must explain to them and then make them write it down. Some understand very well within a day. Many clever ones who will gallop ahead will emerge. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Awaken at amrit vela and remember the Father with a lot of love and make effort to be soul conscious. Remove the rust of vices with the power of remembrance.
2. Whilst staying in your household, take the course to become like a lotus flower. Feel each one's pulse and see their keenness and then give knowledge.

Blessing: May you be an incognito effort-maker who remains constantly content and makes others content when forming connections and relationships with them. The confluence age is the age of contentment. If you do not remain content at the confluence age, then when would you remain content? Therefore, neither let there be any type of conflict within yourself nor let there be any type of conflict in your connections with others. A garland is created when one bead comes into contact with another bead. Therefore, when you remain constantly content and you make others content when in relationship and connection with them, you will then become the beads of the garland. To be in a family means to remain constantly content and make others content.

Slogan: Those who renounce even a trace of their old nature and sanskars are full renunciates.
