

Essence: Sweet children, when the clean saplings become covered with the dirt of the five vices, corruption increases. You now have to become elevated and make others elevated.

Question: What elevated direction do you take from Shri Shri, Shiv Baba in order to become elevated?

Answer: In order to become elevated, you take the Father's shrimat: Children, remain in My service for a minimum of eight hours. You may do that Government's service for eight hours, but remember Me for eight hours and spin the discus of self-realisation. Together with that, blow the conch shell and tell everyone: While living at home, remain as pure as a lotus and claim your inheritance from the Father.

Song: Who created this game and hid Himself away?

Om shanti. You sweetest children heard the song. Initially, in the golden age, you children experienced a lot of happiness; you were very intoxicated; there was nothing but happiness. There was just the land of Bharat; there were no other lands. The people of Bharat, the king, queen and subjects, were all in great comfort and very happy. There was never any corruption there. The deities of the golden age were elevated. So much praise is sung of them. There is praise of the king, queen and subjects, of everyone. Then, Maya comes and clings to you. This is the predestined drama, which has to be understood very well. No one, apart from the Father, can explain it. The Father alone makes Bharat and the whole world constantly happy and peaceful. He does everything and then hides Himself away. Whose praise is this? That of the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul. When there was heaven in Bharat, it was the kingdom of deities. It was satopradhan and there was no name or trace of sorrow. Then, after half the cycle, it became the kingdom of Ravan. It is remembered of the deities of the golden age: They are completely viceless, the most elevated beings who follow the highest code of conduct. There can never be corruption there. They were elevated there. By corruption gradually increasing the clean saplings became covered with the dirt of the five vices and so everything has now become corrupt. The king, queen and subjects were all elevated and all of them have now become corrupt. They even sing: I am without virtue, I do not have any virtues! They call out: "O God, the Father!" and ask for mercy. They go in front of the images of the deities and ask to be made like them. They don't know the drama, so they don't know when they can become like them again. You were elevated; there was no mention of corruption. At this time, all human beings have become corrupt. No one knows how the king, queen and subjects can all now become elevated from corrupt. This is the impure world; there has to be corruption. The Father now says: Whatever you understand, explain that to others. They sing the Father's praise: He did everything Himself and then hid Himself away. Incorporeal God definitely has to come. They celebrate Shiva Jayanti. You children now know how He comes. Shiva is the Purifier. He has to come when the whole world has become impure. He has to come and make everyone pure. He would not make just two to four people pure. The king, queen and subjects were all pure and now, the king, queen and subjects are all impure. There are no kings or queens now. You know that there were royal people, but there are now no kingdoms. When there was the British Government, wealthy people and landowners used to give them money. When someone gave 20 to 30 thousand, he would receive a title. Baba is experienced. Shiv Baba has chosen an experienced chariot. He would not take just any old chariot. Great kings keep first-class horses. Some of the animals are also very good. For instance, some camels are very good. When you sit on them, it feels like an aeroplane moving. Some are such that you have to beat them a lot. Truly, this Bharat was heaven 5000 years ago. This is very well known. Christians too say that 3000 years before Christ, there was heaven (Garden of Eden). Therefore, this truly makes the cycle 5000 years. They themselves show a duration for the cycle but they still say that the golden age is hundreds of thousands of years long. Baba explains such points, so you have to imbibe them and then explain to others. However, you don't explain them. You children now know that you truly were elevated. The king, queen and subjects were all elevated. A lion and a lamb would drink water together (from the same river). There were no devils there such as Kans, Jarasandha, Hirnakashpa, etc. They have shown Hirnakashpa etc. in the golden age and Krishna in the copper age. They show Ravan in the silver age. They have given all the devils different names. Kumbhakarna etc. is also the name of a devil. It is now the devilish kingdom, that is, they are those who follow devilish dictates. The Father now comes and gives you shrimat. It is not that Krishna comes. You are now Brahmins and are becoming deities. The Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, establishes the Brahmin, deity and warrior religions through the lotus mouth of Brahma. There is no other religion there. No other religion was established in the golden or silver age. The duration of both ages is the same, 1250 years. In the golden age, there is the deity kingdom and in the silver age, there is the warrior religion: the sun and moon dynasties. Who established the sun and moon dynasty kingdoms? Would you say that Rama established the moon-dynasty kingdom and that Lakshmi and Narayan established the sun-dynasty kingdom? No; it was the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, who established both kingdoms. The Father is the Creator of heaven. He created the kingdom of the golden and silver ages. It is remembered that the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, created the Brahmin, deity and warrior religions through the mouth of Brahma. The Father says: This knowledge which I tell you will disappear. People don't forget the name, form, place and time of those who established the Islam and Buddhist religions etc. Everyone knows them. Everyone will forget all the knowledge of how I establish the deity religion. So many religions are then established in the copper age. In just the Islam and Buddhist religions, there are now so many branches; they fight among themselves so much. You now know how Baba does everything and then hides Himself away. Maya then comes and clings to those who were the deities in heaven. They have become completely without virtue. People sing: I am without virtue; I do not have any virtue. This is why they worship the virtuous deities. Great kings have temples in their palaces; they worship them. There wouldn't be a single king who didn't have such a temple. You children know that you now have to follow Shiv Baba's shrimat. You have to take shrimat at every step, for only then will you become like those deities. However, you don't follow shrimat. Baba says: If you are confused about anything, just write a letter and ask Baba. Remember the Father. Maya is such that she doesn't allow you to remember the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, who establishes heaven. Baba knows that many storms will come. However, you should write a letter and ask what you should do in such a situation. It is your son's wedding, so what should you do? Someone has died; what should you do? Directions have to be taken. If you want to become elevated, follow shrimat. There cannot be the directions of Krishna. How could Krishna come into the impure world? The Krishna soul is studying Raja Yoga himself in his last birth. Is there just the Krishna soul? All those of the deity clan have to become Brahmins. You have to follow shrimat at every step. The Father says: As much as possible, continue to remember the Father. You have a huge burden of sin. Some of you may be working for the Government and have to do eight hours of that service. For the rest of the time, stay in remembrance. Do My service for at least eight hours. Remember the Father. Spin the discus of self-realisation. Blow the conch shell. Which one? Tell everyone: While living at home, live like a lotus and claim your inheritance from the Father. The Father is creating heaven and so you should receive the inheritance of heaven. It is only Bharat that becomes the master of heaven. It is now the master of hell. When people are unhappy in hell, they remember the Father, but they don't know what the Father will give them. They say of the Father that He is omnipresent and that He is in the pebbles and stones. The Father says: You have made such a big mistake but that too is fixed in the drama. Now leave that. You have become tired of doing devotion etc. Devotion has now become adulterated. Death is just ahead of you and so you should follow shrimat. However, children forget such a Father. No one knows how the kingdom of Maya, Ravan, continues. They burn an effigy of Ravan. That system was created later. They burn an effigy of Ravan, but he continues to get bigger every year. They used to make his effigy 10 feet tall, then they made it 15 feet and then 50 feet. They make it as high as the roof. They also make very large images of Buddha. However, human beings cannot be that tall. At the most, human beings would be six feet tall. Lakshmi and Narayan would also be just about that tall. It isn't that because they have longer lifespans there, they grow taller; no. Human beings are human beings. Just as you now see all the different varieties, there are all types, in Bharat, too, there are those who are beautiful and there are those who are ugly. It is Baba who makes everyone beautiful. He is the beautiful Traveller. He speaks to you. You should not forget Him. You may forget this one (the corporeal one). Always think that Baba is making all of you brides into beautiful princesses. It is said that by taking a dip in the Mansarovar Lake, human beings change into angels. You now understand that you become the angels of knowledge through the Ocean of Knowledge. You are now the angels of hell. No matter how much fashion they follow, how much powder etc. they put on, they would still be in hell. Ask anyone whether this is heaven or hell. They say that, for the wealthy, it is heaven. They don't know heaven or hell. So, you should be concerned about shrimat. They don't even know about shrimat. They have made the name and form of the One who made you so elevated disappear. They sing: You are the Mother and Father and we are Your children. You now know who the mother is. Surely, the one whom the Father enters and through whom He creates creation would be called the mother. Here, you understand that you are the mouth-born creation of Prajapita Brahma. You are the grandsons and granddaughters of Shiv Baba. So, there is also the name of the father. The father, the agent, is definitely needed in between, so that you can be called the grandsons and granddaughters and claim your inheritance from the Grandfather. Therefore, this one is the agent. You cannot receive the inheritance from him. He too has to claim his inheritance from Shiv Baba. You have to follow Shiv Baba's directions. You receive the inheritance from Shiv Baba through Brahma. However, Baba says: You also have to forget this one. You have to take directions from Shiv Baba. People celebrate Shiva Jayanti, but they don't know anything at all. They have removed the memorial of the Father who created heaven and they have kept instead the memorial of the one who created hell. Everything becomes more corrupt day by day. If you get angry, you should understand that there is the evil spirit of anger in you, so how could you be called elevated? You definitely have to make effort to become elevated. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. By having remembrance of the Father and taking the knowledge of the Ocean of Knowledge, become a beautiful angel of knowledge. You definitely have to take Shiv Baba's directions at every step.
2. In order to become elevated, remove any evil spirits from inside you. Don't do anything that would make you corrupt.

Blessing: May you be a knowledgeable soul and, with the stage of being ignorant of the knowledge of desires, be a master bestower.

Those who are knowledgeable souls, that is, those who are intelligent, receive everything without having to ask for anything; they do not need to ask for anything. Since they have all attainments automatically, they cannot have any thought about asking for anything. Such children become ignorant of the knowledge of desires. Such knowledgeable souls become master bestowers, the children of the Bestower, from being those who were asking for something. Their asking finishes and they receive so much respect that they have no desire for name, fame or honour.

Slogan: Those who have full sovereignty over their minds, intellects and sanskars are true masters of the self, self-sovereigns.

 OM SHANTI ***
