

The attainment of the inheritance and the blessings from God in the age of fortune.

Today, the Father, the Seed of the world tree, is looking at His children who are the foundation of the tree, the foundation from whom the whole tree grows. He is looking at the special souls who are embodiments of the essence and who bring about growth, that is, He is looking at the souls who are images of support for the tree. He is looking at the special souls who have imbibed all the powers they have received directly from the Seed. Out of all the souls of the world, only a few souls have received this special part. There are so few souls who have received the part of elevated attainment through their relationship with the Seed.

Today, BapDada was looking at the fortune of such elevated, fortunate children. You children simply remember two words: Bhagwan (God) and bhagya (fortune). Everyone receives fortune according to their karma. Even you souls have had to come into the account of karma and fortune from the copper age onwards; but, in the present age of fortune, God gives you fortune. He gives you children the method for drawing an elevated line of fortune with the pen of elevated actions. With this pen, you can draw as elevated and clear a line of fortune for birth after birth as you want. No other time has this blessing. It is only at this time that you have the blessing to attain whatever you want and however much you want. Why? God is giving you children the treasures of fortune with a generous heart and without you having to make any effort. It is an open treasure store; there are no locks or keys. It is such an overflowing, infinite treasure store that you can take as many treasures as you want. It is an unlimited, overflowing treasure store. Every day, BapDada reminds you children: Take as much as you want! Don't take according to your capacity, but take with a big heart, take from the open treasure store. What would the Father say, if any of you were to take according to your capacity? The Father also remains the detached Observer and smiles as He watches: Children are so innocent that they are happy with just a little. Why? Because, for 63 births, you have had the sanskars of devotees who are happy with just a little. Instead of taking the full attainment, you consider a little to be a lot and are satisfied with that.

You forget that this is the time to take all attainments from the eternal Father. Nevertheless, BapDada reminds you children: Be powerful. It is still not too late. You have come late, but it is not yet the time for "too late". This is why, even now, it is the time to take from both forms of the Father: the inheritance from the Father and blessings from the Satguru. Therefore, create your elevated fortune easily in the form of blessings and the inheritance. You won't then have to think: The Bestower of Fortune distributed fortune, but I only took this much. The children of the Almighty Authority Father cannot be "according to capacity". You now have the blessing that you can take whatever you want from the Father's treasure store as your right. Even if you are weak, with the Father's help you can make your present and future elevated, because when a child keeps courage, the Father gives help. There is very little time left for you to take the Father's co-operation from the Father's open treasure store of fortune.

At this time, because of His love for you, the Father is your Companion at every moment and in every situation, but after a little while, instead of being the Companion, His part of watching everything as the detached Observer will begin. Whether you become full of all powers or you become full according to your capacity, He will observe both these stages as the detached Observer. Therefore, at this elevated time, claim the attainment of the fortune of the inheritance, the blessings, the co-operation and the company that you receive from BapDada. Never become careless about your attainments: There are still so many years left! Don't confuse the time period of world transformation with the time period of attainment. Don't be left behind by just thinking such thoughts of carelessness. In your Brahmin life, constantly remember the words for all attainments - and attainment over a long period of time: "If not now, then never". This is why you were told to remember just two words: Bhagwan and bhagya. You will then always remain multimillion times fortunate. Bap and Dada were having a heart-to-heart conversation between themselves: Why are children compelled by their old habits? The Father makes you strong (majboot) and yet you children then become compelled (majboor). He gives you legs of courage and wings and also make you fly along with Him and yet why do you go up and down, up and down? You continue to be confused even in the age of pleasure. This is known as being compelled by your old habits. Are you strong or are you compelled? The Father makes you double-light and gives you His co-operation by lifting all the burdens Himself. However, because you have the habit of picking up burdens, you take that burden. Do you know what song you then sing? You sing the song of "K", "kya? (What?), kyu ? (Why?) and kese? (How?). You also sing another song: Ge, ge (leave it to some time in the future!) Those are songs of devotion. The song of someone who has a right is, "I have attained!" So, which song do you sing? Check what song you were singing throughout the day. BapDada loves you children and, because of this love, He always thinks: Let every child always be full, powerful and multimillion times fortunate. Do you understand? Achcha.

To those who, according to the time, always have a right to the inheritance and to blessings, to those who create their full fortune from the open treasure store of fortune, to those who transform from 'according to capacity' (yatha-shakti) to being full of all powers (sarva shakti), to those who draw the full line of fortune with the pen of elevated actions, to the elevated souls who are embodiments of all attainments and who know the importance of this time, BapDada's love, remembrance and namaste to make you full.

BapDada meeting groups:

1) Do you always remember your alokik birth, alokik life, alokik Father and alokik inheritance? Just as the Father is alokik, so your inheritance is also alokik. A physical father gives you a limited inheritance and the alokik Father gives you the unlimited inheritance. So, let there always be the awareness of the alokik Father and the inheritance. You don't sometimes go into the memories of your lokik life, do you? You have died alive, have you not? Just as those whose bodies die physically never remember their previous birth, in the same way, those with alokik lives and alokik births can never remember their lokik births. Now, even the age has changed. The world is iron-aged whereas you are confluence aged; everything has changed. You don't sometimes go into the iron age, do you? This too is a border. As soon as you cross the border, you end up in the enemy's hands. So, you don't cross the border, do you? Always have the awareness that you are a confluence-aged elevated soul with an alokik life. What will you now do? Become the biggest of all businessmen. Become such a businessman that in one step you accumulate an income of multimillions. You will always belong to the unlimited Father. Therefore, continue to move forward in unlimited service with unlimited zeal and enthusiasm.

2) Do you constantly experience a double-light stage? The sign of a double-light stage is to be constantly in the flying stage. Those who are in the flying stage can never be attracted by Maya. Those who are in the flying stage are constantly victorious. The intellects of those who are in the flying stage constantly have faith and remain carefree. What does it mean to be in the flying stage? The flying stage means the highest-on-high stage. When you fly, you go up above, do you not? Consider yourselves to be the highest souls who remain stable in the highest-on-high stage and continue to move forward. To be in the flying stage means the feet of the intellect are not on the ground. Above the ground means beyond any awareness of the body. Those who remain above the ground of the awareness of the body are constant angels who have no relationship with the ground. You now know about the awareness of the body and you also know the soul-conscious stage. When you know the difference between the two, you cannot become body conscious. You only do what you like doing, do you not? Therefore, always maintain the awareness that you are an angel. By having the awareness of an angel, you will constantly continue to fly. When you go into the flying stage, the ground down below cannot attract you. Just as when you go into space, there is no pull of gravity from the Earth, in the same way, when you have become an angel, the 'Earth' of the body cannot attract you.

3) Do you constantly experience the stage of being co-operative karma yogis, natural yogis and constant yogis? When something is easy, it becomes constant. If it is not easy, it is not constant. So, are you constant yogis or is there a difference? Yogi means to remain constantly absorbed in remembrance. When you have all relationships with God, then because of all relationships, there will be natural remembrance, and when there are all relationships, there will be the remembrance of One. Since there is just the One there would be constant remembrance. So, belong to the one Father and none other in all relationships. To belong to the one Father in all relationships is the easy way to become a constant yogi. When you don't have any other relationship, where would your remembrance go? Always have the awareness that you are easy yogi souls by having all relationships with the Father. By being constantly equal to the Father and having a balance of love and power at every step, success automatically comes in front of you. Success is your birthright. You have to work in order to keep busy, but one is hard work and the other is just like a game. Since you have received the blessing of powers from the Father, then, where there is power, everything is easy. Let there just be a balance between the family and the Father and you will automatically receive blessings. Where there are blessings, there is the flying stage. Even against your conscious wish, there is easy success.

4) Do you always have the awareness of the Father and the inheritance? The awareness of who your Father is and what inheritance you have received automatically makes you powerful. You have received such an imperishable inheritance that it can create in one birth a reward for many births. Have you ever received such an inheritance before? You receive this now, but not in the rest of the cycle. Therefore, constantly continue to move forward with the constant awareness of the Father and your inheritance. By remembering your inheritance, there will be constant happiness and by remembering the Father, you will remain constantly powerful. A powerful soul will always remain a conqueror of Maya and where there is happiness, there is life. What is life when there is no happiness? In that situation, although you have a life, it is like not having a life. Whilst living, it is like being dead. The more you remember your inheritance, the more happiness you will have. Do you constantly have happiness? Only a handful out of multimillions receive such an inheritance and you have received it. Never lose this awareness. The more remembrance there is, so accordingly there is attainment. There is constant remembrance and the constant happiness of attainment.

BapDada meeting kumars: A kumar life is a powerful life. So Brahma Kumars means spiritually powerful. Not physically powerful, but spiritually powerful. You can do whatever you want in kumar life. So, all of you kumars have created your present and future in your kumar life. What have you made it? You have made it spiritual. When you became Brahma Kumars with Godly lives, you became those with such elevated lives. Your lives became so elevated that you stepped away from sorrow, deception and wandering around for all time. Otherwise, kumars with physical strength continue to wander around. They just fight, quarrel, cause sorrow and deceive others. So you have been saved from so many things. Just as you have been saved, so you also have the enthusiasm to save others. You are those who constantly save your equals. Also give to others the powers you have received. You have received limitless powers, have you not? So, make everyone powerful. Serve whilst considering yourself to be an instrument. Not: I am a server. Baba is making me do it and I am just an instrument. You are not those who have the consciousness of "I". Those who don't have any consciousness of "I" are true servers.

BapDada meeting couples: Are you constantly souls who have a right to self-sovereignty? To rule over your self means constantly to have a right. Those who have a right can never be dependent. If you are dependent, you cannot have all rights. When it is night, it is not day and when it is day, it is not night. Similarly such souls who have all rights cannot be dependent on any of the physical senses, people or material comforts. Do you have such rights? When you have become master almighty authorities, what does that make you? Those with all rights. So, with the powerful awareness that you are souls who have a right to self-sovereignty, you will easily continue to be victorious. Let there not be the slightest thought of defeat even in your dreams. This is called being constantly victorious. Has Maya run away or are you chasing her away? Have you chased her away to such an extent that she doesn't come back? When you don't want someone to come back, you leave him somewhere far away. So, have you chased her that far away? Achcha.

Blessing: May you make the one Father your world in Brahmin life and become a natural and easy yogi. All the children in Brahmin life have promised to belong to the one Father and none other. When the Father is your world, when there is no one else, you will then constantly have a natural and easy yogi stage. If there is anyone else, you would have to make effort. Let the intellect not wander anywhere, but let it remain there. If the one Father is your everything, your intellect cannot go anywhere else. In this way, you easily become an easy yogi and one who easily has a right to self-sovereignty. There is a constant and stable sparkle of spirituality on your face.

Slogan: To become avyakt and bodiless, like the Father, is the practical proof of avyakt sustenance.
