Smriti or to Remember

Sweet child, Baba saw each of you with a discus of self-realization. All of you were those who spin the discus of self-realization, but, whereas some children's discus was spinning automatically, others had to make their discus spin. There were some children who were spinning the discus in the wrong direction instead of the right way; instead of spinning the discus of self-realization, they were spinning the discus of looking at others. They were creating a web of questions: "Why?" and "What?" They would create that web themselves and then trap themselves in it.

Sweet Baba, during the course of the day I will reaffirm the awareness that I am a knowledge-full master. With ease I will spin the discus of self-realization constantly. I will become completely free from the web of looking at others and raising questions like "Why?" and "What?" When I keep my whole journey through time in my awareness, I attain jeevanmukti and am able to tour the whole world with You, Baba, and my service benefits the whole world.

Samarthi or Power

I constantly plug myself into the power that is received from the above smriti. I become aware how my smriti is recharging my self-respect. I pay attention to how my smriti is giving me strength and is allowing me to operate with equanimity and patience in an ever-changing world.

Mano-vritti or Attitude

Baba to Soul: The eternal offer that the Father has made to all you children is that all of you can remain constantly seated on the heart throne. However, according to the automatic cycle of the philosophy of karma, only those who constantly follow the Father can remain constantly seated on the throne.

Sweet Baba, I will make my attitude such that there is no ego left in me. I will develop an attitude of only seeing You Baba, and only following your footsteps. Sweet Baba, all I want is to be seated on Your heart throne. For this, I need only develop the attitude of following You in thoughts, words, and actions.

Drishti or Pure Vision

Baba to Soul: Each child is sitting under the beautifully decorated canopy of protection. It was those who were wearing the crown of responsibility of serving to benefit the world who were sitting under this canopy of protection. They were very beautifully adorned with a double crown. One was a crown of light, to indicate their complete purity, and the other was a crown of service.

I will keep the beautifully decorated canopy of protection that is over my head in my drishti today. I understand that to keep this constantly in my drishti, I must take up the double responsibility of benefiting the world with my purity and service. I see myself seated under the canopy of protection wearing a double crown.

Creating a Wave

I will do mansa seva and be part of creating a beautiful wave of pure remembrance and attitude spanning the whole globe during the 7:00pm to 7:30pm meditation. I will engage the smriti, manovritti, and drishti from above and give sakaash to the whole world as a humble instrument.
