Smriti or to Remember

Sweet child, may you be a world transformer who sacrifices the feeling of ownership through the balance of sense and essence. Sense means points of knowledge and understanding. Essence means to be an embodiment of all powers, an embodiment of remembrance and a powerful form.

Sweet Baba, during the course of the day I will reaffirm this awareness: when I fill every thought, word, and action with your remembrance and with knowledge, then I easily transform the atmosphere of the entire world.

Samarthi or Power

I constantly plug myself into the power that is received from the above smriti. I become aware how my smriti is recharging my self-respect. I pay attention to how my smriti is giving me strength and is allowing me to operate with equanimity and patience in an ever-changing world.

Mano-vritti or Attitude

Baba to Soul: This world is dirty. You must have unlimited disinterest in it. The Father says: Whatever you see now in this world will not exist tomorrow. In fact, nothing, apart from the Father, has any value.

I am determined to have an attitude of disinterest in this old world. At this time, only that which is eternal and pure holds value. The highest value in my life is Baba's company, guidance, and pure love.

Drishti or Pure Vision

Baba to Soul: Sweet children, you are now entering new relationships. Therefore, forget all your relationships here that are based on karmic bondage and make effort to become karmateet.

In my drishti today, I let go of seeing others in terms of our past karmic history. I see each soul with clean eyes as if every relationship is new and filled with Godly light.

Creating a Wave

I will do mansa seva and be part of creating a beautiful wave of pure remembrance and attitude spanning the whole globe during the 7:00pm to 7:30pm meditation. I will engage the smriti, mano-vritti, and drishti from above and give sakaash to the whole world as a humble instrument.
